A special and nice poster placed throughout the park reminds our guests of the rules to follow for their own safety and that of other people.

All locations within FICO have been appropriately resized to ensure minimum spacing of 1 meter between the seats, so also the restaurants, available to customers for business lunches and informal and gala dinners in large indoor and outdoor spaces.

The same playful activities that can be planned before or after an event, such as our brand new tours, include groups with numerical magazines and exclusively disposable material.
