

Museo internazionale e Biblioteca della musica

Overview

The museum is located inside the prestigious Palazzo Sanguinetti in the historic center of Bologna. The first floor is home to the nine beautifully frescoed rooms of the exhibition itinerary, where six centuries of music history are traced with paintings of illustrious personalities, ancient musical instruments and a selection of historical documents of enormous value: in fact, the library collection is known for its collection of printed music from the 1500s to the 1700s, precious manuscripts, opera librettos, and a unique collection of autographs and letters signed by the most famous musicians, composers, singers, and music theorists.
