Victoria Restaurant

Overview

Since 1994, we have offered food, wine, warmth, and laughter just steps from Via Indipendenza, on the ground floor of Palazzo Gini. Here, Count Massimiliano Gini, an art lover, commissioned G. Gandolfi and S. Barozzi, along with many of their students, to decorate his residence. Highlights include the room with Venus binding Cupid and the alcove with Bacchus and Ariadne, dating back to around 1772.

Traditional Bolognese cuisine, land and seafood menu, and classic wood-fired pizza.
