

Salotto Boschi

Overview

Once upon a time, a stream called Avesa flowed through Bologna — and still does, hidden beneath its streets. Along its banks, silk and wool were spun into fine fabrics that shaped the city's fortune. In 1450, the Dalla Lana family laid the first stone of their palace at 368 Via Castiglione — the beginning of Salotto Boschi's story.

Today, Salotto Boschi is a refined venue in the heart of Bologna, hosting cultural events, exhibitions, and private functions. Contemporary artworks meet period furnishings, offering timeless elegance for meetings, dinners, product launches, and photo shoots.
