

Immaginazione

Overview

Immaginazione is a company with 30 years of experience in the trade show and convention industry. Their work meets all event graphics needs. The team of graphic designers and creatives interprets the clients' desires and designs the best solutions; the printing laboratory creates the communication tools best suited to the need: signage for large events, backdrops, customizations, booth set-up, shaped for every use and need.

The large number of events Immaginazione deals with, large and small, allows it to boast a 360-degree expertise. Its strong network of suppliers and partners allows it to guarantee effective assistance even last minute and on site.
