

La Tavola della Signoria

Overview

La Tavola della Signoria has twenty years of experience in organizing institutional and corporate, public and private events. From banquets in grand palaces to the most prestigious corporate dinners, the passion and expertise are unchanged, the service always impeccable. Understanding the client's needs, flexibility and creativity: these are the main characteristics of La Tavola della Signoria, respecting the client's budget, style and requests. The experienced staff has catered gala evenings for international brands, connected to visits of heads of state and foreign delegations, prestigious university conferences, national and international awards.
